

- f. Emergencies The Parties are not precluded from bringing an application to a court having jurisdiction for interim or interlocutory relief, in law or in equity, including, without limitation, injunctive relief, if such relief is required to preserve the rights or property of either or both of the Parties, pending the final determination of those rights in a subsequent court proceeding as contemplated in Section (e).
- g. During the currency of any dispute, or court proceeding, the Parties will continue to perform their undisputed obligations pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, pending final resolution of the dispute; provided however, that a Party may suspend performance of its undisputed obligations during any period in which the other Party fails or refuses to perform its undisputed obligations.
- h. Severability If any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, any such provision shall be severable from this Agreement, in which event this Agreement shall be construed as if such provision had never been contained herein. The Parties shall use their best efforts in order to replace the void or unenforceable provision by a legally valid or enforceable provision which is economically equivalent. The same applies in case of a contractual gap.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed this Agreement the day and year set forth below.
